

Member Statement

ELIGIBILITY

Anyone who is engaged in the field of international education, who is committed to the Objects of the Association, and who undertakes to uphold the ISANA Code of Ethics.

Members of ISANA may not promote goods and/or services through the ISANA network without the express written permission of the local ISANA branch.

The ISANA logo is a trademark and may not be used by any ISANA members without the express permission of the ISANA National Council.

Members found to be breaching any of the above, may be formally reprimanded or expelled from the organisation.

STANDING FOR OFFICE

Members wishing to stand for office need to be mindful of their professional capacity to fulfill their obligations in office. Any member holding office needs to be mindful of potential conflict of interest, commit themselves to the objects and adhere to the ISANA Code of Ethics.

Members wishing to stand for office need to be aware of their obligations to represent the membership, and to understand the field of international education. Standing for office and representing ISANA requires an awareness of the interests of members, and the current issues relating to international education including student issues.

Members nominating or voting for office bearers are encouraged to seek people with the capacity to fully represent the membership, and to serve the Association impartially and with genuine commitment.

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES:

Full member

Individuals who are engaged in the field of international education and fulfill the eligibility as stated above. Full voting rights and eligible to hold office.

Affiliate member

Associated organisation both locally and overseas committed to similar objectives as ISANA. ISANA will have explicit agreements with such organisations. The agreements may include reciprocal registrations etc. These organisations include CISA/IEAA/NAFSA, EAIE and APAIE.

No voting or office-bearing rights.

Life member

From time to time Council may award Life Membership to a member who has made an outstanding contribution to the life and development of the Association.

Same rights as a full member.

Honorary member

From time to time the council may offer honorary membership to a non-member who has made an outstanding contribution to the objects of the Association or to international education in general. No office bearing or voting rights.

Student member

Available to students committed to upholding the objects of the Association and/or wishing to develop a career in international education.

No office bearing or voting rights.

Group membership

Groups may apply to join ISANA, providing application forms and signed Code of Ethics from each individual applicant are received by the ISANA secretariat at the same time. Group membership does not necessarily need to be members from the same institution. The benefit to the group is a fee discount.

Note: Membership is individual, not institutional.

TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP

In exceptional circumstances, members may transfer a membership, upon contacting the ISANA secretariat. However, if there is less than six months to run on a membership, this will not be transferrable. Requests to transfer a membership will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Membership fees are not refundable.
