SANiTy STATE CONFERENCE 'Celebrating Diversity and Well-being'

As providers of support and services, it is one of our responsibilities to be actively involved in addressing the needs of a changing and evolving world by developing institutions where diverse perspectives, cultures and values are understood, accepted, appreciated and celebrated.

This year we further explore the many issues that international students face while they study, work and live in Australia so that we can take our knowledge and develop practices that are inclusive of all differences.

Guest presenters

- Ishwar Singh, Pride in Diversity
- Karyn Kent, Study Adelaide
- Terri Finn, Adelaide University Union
- Nadia Lovett, University Senior College
- Lisa Kemp, Adelaide City Council
- Mary Ann Seow, National ISANA President

Dates:	Friday, 17 November
Time:	9.15am for 9.30am start
Location:	The University of Adelaide Rooms 322 – Hughes Building (The lower ground floor of the Hub)
Cost:	$80.00 members or $150 for non-members

Highlights of the Conference

- Excellent networking opportunities with a variety of international education stakeholders
- Exposure to effective programs delivered first hand by experts
- Exploring best practice from a local and national perspective

It is important that delegates feel connected, supported and empowered in all areas of international education. This conference aims to bring participants together to explore potential challenges in a supportive environment. By attending the conference, participants will benefit enormously from connecting with more experienced peers, gain valuable exposure to issues they may encounter and derive important feedback for their workplace.
