COVID-19 and Beyond for International Students

We know this is a difficult time for many international students. Here are some ways you can manage through the crisis and set yourself up for the future.

Keep yourself healthy and engaged

Maintain social connections

- Virtual chats and small group catch ups

- · Provider or institution social clubs

Keep yourself healthy

Find YOU time

- Make time for activities and hobbies
- Learn a new skill

Be inspired

There are beautiful happenings in the world

- Beautiful News
- Our beautiful world
- Our wonderful international students

Keep Safe

- · Download the COVIDSafe app
- Report and deal with racism
- Seek welfare support if you need it
- Speak with your institution's international student contact person if you need advice or help

Keep yourself mentally fit

Know the facts

Limit dramatised media coverage and learn the facts

Practise self-care

Be kind to yourself and don't underestimate your ability to cope

Be Mindful

Practice relaxation and mindfulness help your body settle and be calm

Ask for help

Seek mental health support if needed

Future proof your career

Boost your employability

- Develop skills of the future with free

Plan for your career

- Research your chosen industries in Australia and offshore
- Build a career profile plan

- Identify your key employability skills

Develop your job application

- Contact your provider's career services
- Review and develop your CV or resume
- Practice your job interview technique

Develop your online professional profile

- Review and consider your online profile - Google yourself to see what comes up

Develop your workplace skills

Finding work

- Seek legitimate work (not cash in hand) to ensure you receive Government protection and the same rights as all
- Volunteer with your institution's clubs and societies, with local community groups or not-for-profit charities
- Seek out internships and talk to your careers counsellor or advisor about options to do internships as part of your course (also visit AAGE)
- Visit LinkedIn for job opportunities
- Register on employment websites

Join the movement. We are all #InThisTogether

