

Member Conference Bursary Selection Criteria

Introduction

ISANA International Education Association is the representative body for international education professionals in Australia and New Zealand, working in student services, advocacy, teaching, and policy development.

Mission Statement

ISANA International Education Association is an association of Australian and New Zealand international education professionals whose members are dedicated to the advancement of international education through:

leadership, promotion and advocacy of best practice standards in the service of international education

the facilitation of relevant forums, training and information exchange for its membership and the community working in partnership with stakeholder organisations including international students, educational, government, business and community groups.

Objectives

ISANA aims to assist those directly and professionally engaged in the provision of international education services. It does this by:

Providing a means for the exchange of information and networking

Facilitating professional development of members

Building links with associated organisations locally and overseas

Recognising the interests and rights of international students in Australia and New Zealand.

Selection Criteria

1. You must be an ISANA Member
2. You must be an individual who contributes to your state branch
3. You must provide a few paragraphs (max 200 words) that respond to:

Member Conference Bursary Selection Criteria

"How attending the National Conference will enhance your personal development and your role in supporting international students through your role or interests in international education."

4. You must be available to participate during the Conference
5. You must present to your ISANA branch, at the following PD or meeting, on how the conference has made a difference to your role.

The Selection Panel will be drawn from the National Council and its decision will be final.

ISANA reserves the right to hold a consultation period of one week after the closing date in case clarification is required from applicants.