

Dear ISANA Member,

We are busily finalising the program for the upcoming 33rd ISANA Conference, Community, Connection: Advancing International Education Services, being held at Rydges World Square Sydney, NSW, on 6 - 8 December 2023.

We are looking forward to welcoming everyone to Sydney for our first in-person National Conference post covid. This year we are curating a capacity-building program that will be of interest to both new and experienced practitioners. Our program will focus on the need for foundational professional development for international education practitioners new to our sector. It will offer insight and key takeaways for our more experienced international education practitioners.

Speaker Profile

We are pleased to announce that Professor Sally Kift PFHEA FAAL ALTF, has accepted our invitation to participate and will be presenting a keynote address, 3rd Generation Transition Pedagogy: Not leaving student success to chance.

Sally is a Principal Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (PFHEA), a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Law (FAAL), and President of the Australian Learning & Teaching Fellows (ALTF). She has held several university leadership positions, including as Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) at James Cook University. Sally is a national Teaching Award winner, a national Program Award winner and a national Senior Teaching Fellow on the First Year Experience. In 2010, she was appointed an Australian Discipline Scholar in Law.

In 2017, Sally received an Australian University Career Achievement Award for her contribution to Australian higher education. Since 2017, she has been working as an independent higher education consultant. From 2018-2021, Sally was a Visiting Professorial Fellow at the National Centre for Student Equity in Higher Education (NCSEHE), Curtin University and now chairs NCSEHE's Grants and Fellowships Committee. She is currently a Vice Chancellor's Fellow, Victoria University and an Adjunct Professor at JCU, Queensland University of Technology and La Trobe University.
